

INTERNATIONAL Women's Day SEMINAR

INVITATION

In 1945, the Charter of the United Nations became the first international agreement to affirm the principle of equality between women and men. International Women's Day was first observed in the United States in 1909 and was officially celebrated on the 8th March 1975.

The Department of Justice and Constitutional Development in partnership with South African Women Lawyers Association (SAWLA) intends to celebrate International Women's Day. The event will bring together women from various sectors including government, the judiciary, academia and civil society, among others. The International Women's Day celebration aims at sharing women's experiences and advancement of their rights at international, regional and national level.

The event will be held under the theme: "Gender Equality today for a sustainable tomorrow"

The Department of Justice and Constitutional Development and SAWLA cordially invite the International Federation of Women Lawyers to the celebration of International Women's Day. A virtual link shall be emailed to you.

The event will take place as follows:
